You're invited to play on through.

Here in lakeside Coeur d'Alene, the air is a little bit fresher, the water is inviting, and there are endless ways to play – no matter the season. Coeur d'Alene has the amenities of a city many times its size, but retains the friendly charm of small-town America. This is a special place to do everything you can imagine under the summer sun, fall leaves, winter snow, or spring blooms. To see all of our attractions just scan the code to the left!

Downtown Coeur d'Alene hosts colorful events all year long. Summer brings a classic car show, IRONMAN race, arts and crafts festivals, farmers markets and outdoor concerts. Enjoy the fall Oktoberfest, winter Holiday Light Show and spring St. Patrick's Day celebration and downtown food and wine events.

"One of 8 Perfect Summer Towns"

"An outdoor wonderland"

Enjoying the great outdoors is a way of life in Coeur d'Alene. We invite you to find out for yourself why travel experts prefer it here. We love our downtown festivals, world-class golf, family fun and water-based adventures, and we look forward to sharing them with you.

"One of the world's best travel destinations"

"...Best Lake towns for relaxation and adventure."

Coeur d'Alene lies along the northern shore of lovely Lake Coeur d'Alene. Carved by glacial waters, this valley has long been a destination for travelers of all kinds. The Schitsu'umsh Tribe made their home here, as did fur traders, prospectors and army troops. Visitors came by electric train to enjoy the views from steam-powered paddle wheel boats. Today, Coeur d'Alene proudly continues this tradition of hospitality.

The centerpiece is Lake Coeur d'Alene, 25 miles of pure, blue water lined with pine-studded hills. National Geographic once called it one of the five prettiest lakes in the world.

Downtown Coeur d'Alene is a charming place near the waterfront with restored brick buildings, lampposts, trees and over 100 shops within a six-block area.

From here, you've got options...

Lake-based activities, golf, the Northwest's largest theme park, outdoor adventure, family fun, and a thriving food, arts and festival scene. From special events to special places, there's always something happening in this lakeside treasure trove of endless fun. To see all of our summer activities just scan the code to the left!

Coeur d'Alene's waterfront is a wonderful place to explore, with gift shops, galleries, restaurants, beaches, parks and hiking trails. For fun on the water, Lake Coeur d'Alene has boat cruises, kayaking, jet skiing, paddleboarding, fishing and parasailing.
