One of the world’s best travel destinations

...Best lake towns for relaxation and adventure.
Coeur d’Alene lies along the northern shore of lovely Lake Coeur d’Alene. Carved by glacial waters, this valley has long been a destination for travelers of all kinds. The Schitsu’umsh Tribe made their home here, as did fur traders, prospectors and army troops. Visitors came by electric train to enjoy the views from steam-powered paddle wheel boats. Today, Coeur d’Alene proudly continues this tradition of hospitality.

The centerpiece is Lake Coeur d’Alene, 25 miles of pure, blue water lined with pine-studded hills. National Geographic once called it one of the five prettiest lakes in the world.

Downtown Coeur d’Alene is a charming place near the waterfront with restored brick buildings, lampposts, trees and over 100 shops within a six-block area.

From here, you’ve got options…

Lake-based activities, golf, the Northwest’s largest theme park, outdoor adventure, family fun, and a thriving food, arts and festival scene. From special events to special places, there’s always something happening in this lakeside treasure trove of endless fun.

Whatever floats your boat.

Coeur d’Alene’s waterfront is a wonderful place to explore, with gift shops, galleries, restaurants, beaches, parks and hiking trails. For fun on the water, Lake Coeur d’Alene has boat cruises, kayaking, scenic flights, jet skiing, paddleboarding, fishing and parasailing.
